WHAT DO YOU MEAN?

Well, I always wanted to be like my parents...

I adored them.

But often I felt alone...

They were always TWO and I was only one...

My parents drank a lot...

...together...

TASCHENUHREN
SAMMLUNG

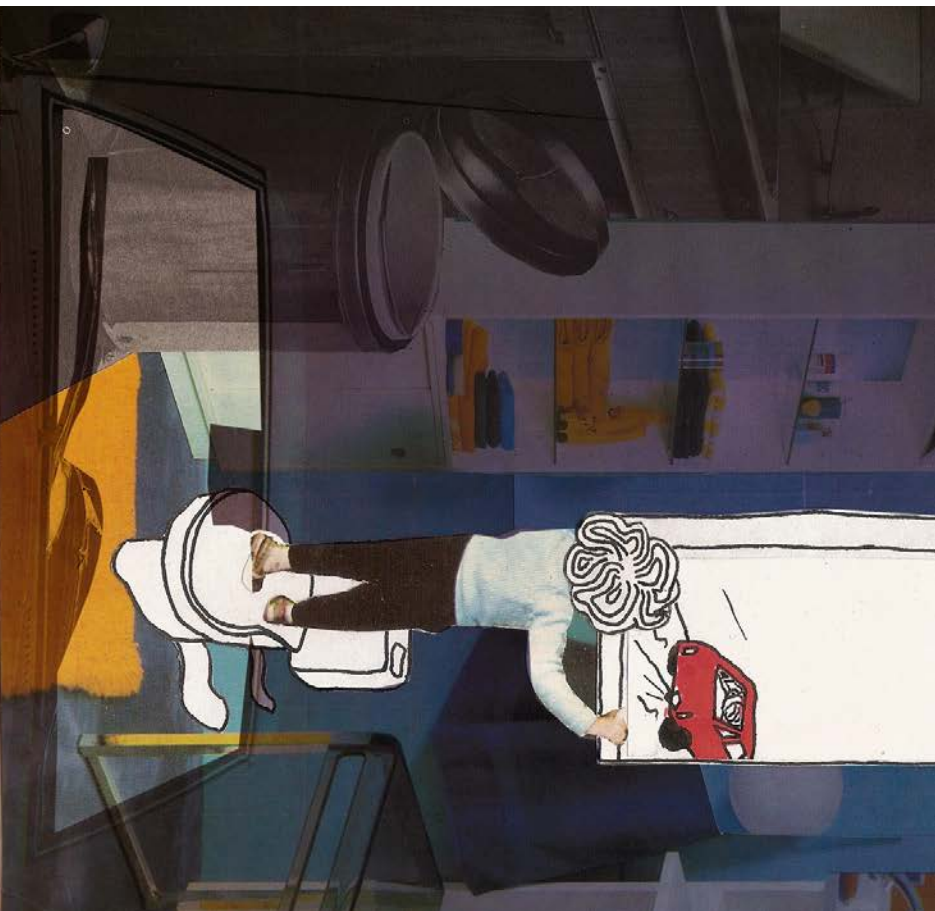

Why do you look so sad now?

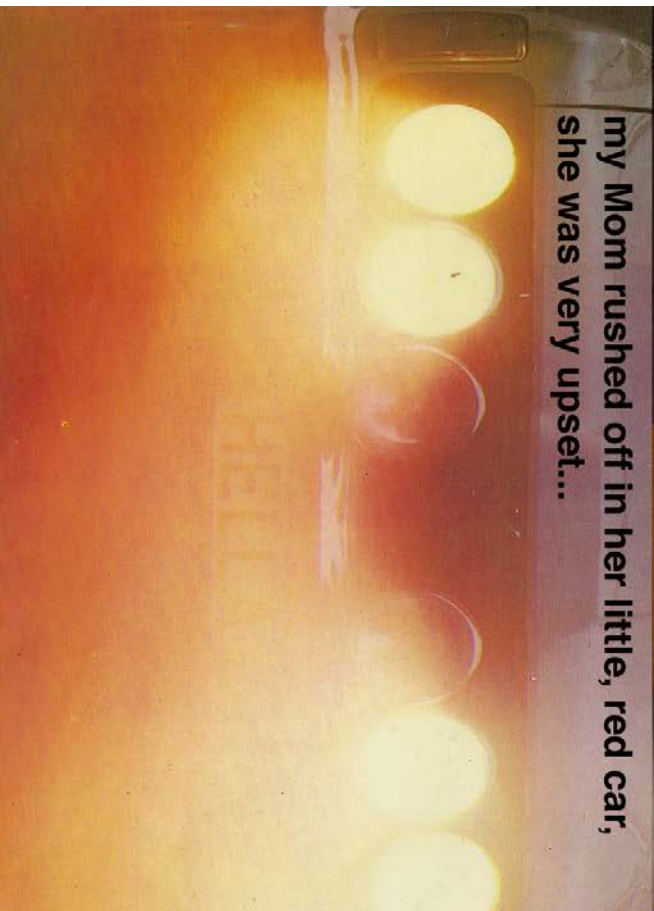

One day...was it day or night?

my Mom rushed off in her little, red car,
she was very upset...

I went into her room and found her closet full of post-it's...

for my husband
for my daughter
for my mother in law

I was upset and asked my father to follow her.

He said "Don't worry - she does that sometimes"

Is it THAT easy? I thought

I DO NOT REMEMBER
WHEN SHE CAME BACK

AND LATER ON IT FEELS AS IF IT DID NOT REALLY HAPPEN...
I STILL FEEL LIKE THAT ABOUT MANY MEMORIES

I would ask her later on if she wanted to comitt suicide.
She said yes -
but didn't do it for me!

Shall I be grateful for that?

Well, MY mother slipped into my room
sometimes - late at night -
she was crying...

and wanted to kiss and hug...

...I pretended to be asleep,
didn't understand anything,

and was terrified.

Some memories seem to be harmless,
but still make your stomach inflate...

Inflate your stomach?

With eight I was put on my first diet...

With 14 I needed extra classes
to make it at school,
My parents would say I am lazy.

I was just worried...

A black and white advertisement for Calvin Klein's fragrance 'Obsession'. The central image is a composite: a realistic photograph of a nude woman lying down is overlaid with a large, stylized line drawing of a woman's face. The face has exaggerated features, including large eyes, a prominent nose, and wavy hair. In the top left corner, the word 'Obsession' is written in a large, serif font, with 'new for men' in smaller text above it. In the bottom right corner, the brand name 'Calvin Klein' is written in a script font, with 'eau de toilette' in a smaller sans-serif font below it.

foto
I sent them
after two months...

bulimic, sad, scared and helpless - they thought I was very pretty.

Gosh, I hope you won't repeat that story?

My parents never wanted to be like their parents.
They would always remind me...

...how lucky I was
by not beeing beaten up
by them...

A collage-style illustration. In the foreground, a person is shown from the back, wearing a grey dress with a white polka-dot pattern. Their head is replaced by a white shape with black contour lines, resembling a topographical map. They are standing next to a light-colored wooden table with a darker wood top. In the background, there is a green upholstered chair with yellow legs and a green rug. The overall style is artistic and layered.

What do you feel for them now?

Our distance is great!

Well yes, girls we've got a lot to do!
