| 1. Are you longing for some deep sleep
You are longing for some deep sleep
You're tired and worn from the application forms and all the bad paid expectation | 4. Oh, go to sleep poor hmm hmm
Better go to sleep poor hmmm hmm
Your work beyond the commerce is a profitable thought not for you but the world establishment complot |
| 2. Well, forget about the competition need to forget about the competition
You can never get it done cause you're always on the run
They are always three four steps ahead of you | 5. Commercial works, sacred producer
Everyone's a generous seducer
Your doubts and fears of sustainability won't make it to the books of our history |
| 3. Do you believe in a higher mission?
Do you believe in a higher mission?
You hardly ever sell, have a lousy second job, well why don't quit this starving profession? | 6. Feeling tired feeling sleepy
Feeling tired feeling sleepy
Now lay down your head give a kiss to your bed for it's the only one who does sustain you |

Sleep like a rock

When you're fee - ling like a rock fal - len in a well

When you're out of ideas and have no - thing to sell

Catch the rock with a strong string and roll it up your head

Your mind will stretch, you disconnect and fall into your bed.

1. When you're feeling like a rock fallen in a well
When you're out of ideas and have nothing to sell
Catch the rock with a strong string and roll it up your head
Your mind will stretch, you disconnect and fall into your bed
2. Every year young boys dive from the shining cliffs
There's a place for everyone and everyone's beliefs
The sea is full of treasure but you don't care at all Sugarcoated vaseline you adore before you fall
3. Into deep sleep into deep sleep (repeat)

Hmmmmm hmmm hmmm hmmm (repeat)
